

SYNOPSIS OF INTERNATIONAL COMIC CARTOON ENTITLED "JUDGE RUMMY" IN
"THE SKATING POOL" ✓ INTERNATIONAL NUMBER 23 GOLDWYN NUMBER 843. ✓

The picture opens, showing a very pretty young lady sitting on a bench, which borders an ice covered lake. The lady is adjusting her skates, preparatory to taking a spin over the smooth surface of the lake. To the left stands a snow man, but it soon proves to be none other than Judge Rummy, who is trying very hard to be flirtatious with the young lady. The young lady makes her exit from the scene with Judge Rummy in close pursuit.

We are now shown a bench, bordering the lake, which is filled with beautiful young ladies, getting their skates adjusted by the "skate boy". Judge Rummy appears on the scene and very cautiously bribes the skate boy to give him the job. The Judge at once becomes very busy, not fulfilling the job of "skate boy", but taking this opportunity to give the beautiful girls the "once over". He crawls on his hands and knees on the ice, and on reaching the end of the line of girls, discovers to his amazement that the lady on the end of the line proves to be none other than his wife. On seeing this, Judge Rummy immediately makes a quick exit, but is halted by the thundering voice of his wife, who calls, "ALEXANDER". The Judge immediately obeys and greets his wife with a forced grin. She at once orders him to push her over the snow, on the sled in which she is sitting. The Judge exits pushing Mrs. Rummy over the hills.

After pushing Mrs. Rummy around on the sled and completely exhausted, he successfully bribes a negro to take his place in back of the sled. The negro pushes Mrs. Rummy over the snow and out of the scene, all of which Mrs. Rummy is ignorant of. The Judge now is very happy to think he has another opportunity of seeing the pretty skater.

The Judge now enters the skate house and comes into view ready for a spin over the ice. He has some difficulty in keeping on his feet, but finally manages to get out on the ice and meet the young lady. After several attempts to "show off" in front of the young lady, he is greatly embarrassed to have to sit on the ice, while the young lady does some fantastic skating around him. He finally reaches shore by the aid of a small dog who pulls him safely off the ice. On reaching land, he luckily finds a pair of crutches, which enable him to keep his feet on the ice. With these, he makes his way to the young lady, and after some funny antics on the ice, the lady embraces him lovingly and skates off with him over the ice.

The girl seems to have taken quite a liking to the Judge, as she is seen seated on a bench, bordering the lake, holding the Judge in her arms and loving him furiously.

We now see the negro, who has pushed Mrs. Rummy for miles, and finally rests at the top of a huge cliff bordering the lake. He very carefully pushes Mrs. Rummy over the cliff and makes good his get-a-way.

We now cut to the scene of the Judge and the beautiful girl making love on the bench at the foot of the cliff, but their pleasant dreams are quickly shattered as the sled containing Mrs. Rummy bounces down the cliff, knocking the Judge high in the air, and sending the girl out of the scene. Mrs. Rummy falls on the bench in the same relative position as the beautiful girl was in and the Judge falls in her lap, and turns to kiss her, thinking it is the beautiful girl. As soon as he sees what has taken place, he jumps out of her lap and is just about ready to make good his escape when the frost like glances from Mrs. Rummy's eyes, freezes him into a cake of ice. Mrs. Rummy escorts him out of the scene by the use of a pair of ice picks.
